Called Mrs Brennan, Gov Harriman's secretary, to ascertain he was still in hospital.
She said he was at home. Then Mrs.
Harriman picked up phone and asked when you would be back; said she thought Gov would like to see you. I explained that you heard about his accident while you were traveling and cabled me to send flowers. She asked that I hold off til Monday as he had so many right now. And she expressed her thanks.
